

BASIC FRAMEWORK FOR THE GLOBAL PARTNERSHIP TO STOP TB

This basic framework contains the institutional, operational, and administrative arrangements for the Global Partnership to Stop TB (hereinafter called “the Stop TB Partnership”), as launched in November 1998 by the Director-General of the World Health Organization, called for in the Amsterdam Declaration to stop TB of March 2000, and recommended during the Bellagio meeting of the interim Stop TB Coordinating Board of February 2001.

Section I - DESCRIPTION OF THE STOP TB PARTNERSHIP

1. Purpose and Mission

1.1 The purpose of the Stop TB Partnership is to realize the goal of elimination of TB as a public health problem and, ultimately, to obtain a world free of TB. Its mission is to:

- Ensure that every TB patient has access to effective diagnosis, treatment, and cure
- Stop transmission of TB
- Reduce the inequitable social and economic toll of TB
- Develop and implement new preventive, diagnostic, and therapeutic tools and strategies to stop TB

1.2 In order to achieve that aim, the Stop TB Partnership will:

- a) Promote wider and wiser use of existing strategies to interrupt TB transmission, by:
 - increasing access to accurate diagnosis and effective treatments by accelerating expansion of DOTS to achieve the global target for TB control.
 - increasing the availability, affordability, and quality of TB drugs.
- b) Adapt existing strategies to address the challenges posed by emerging threats, by:
 - developing an effective strategy to prevent and manage multi-drug resistant TB.
 - developing an effective strategy to reduce the impact of HIV-related TB.

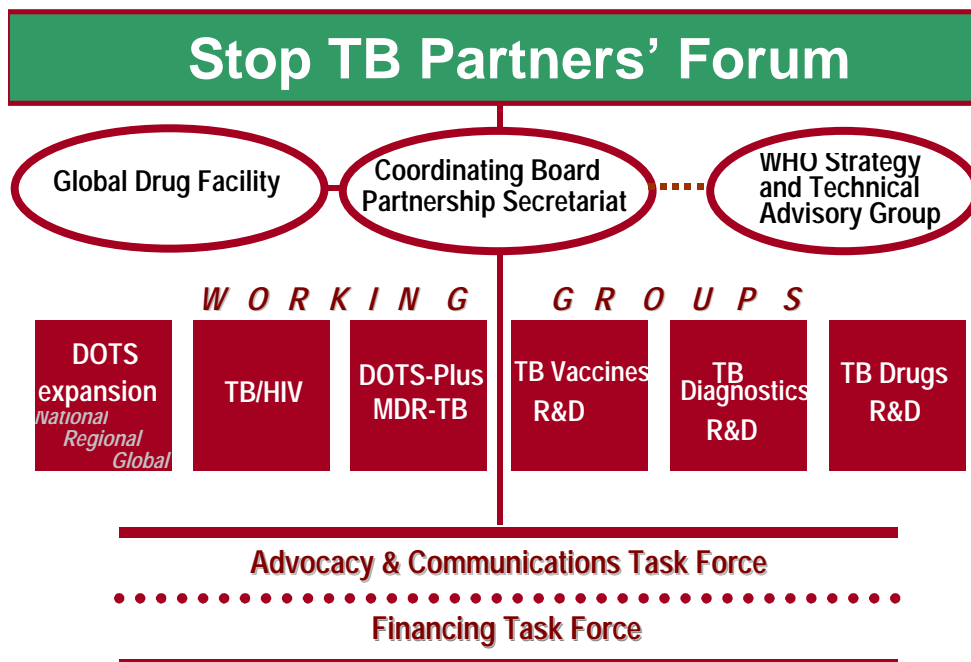

- c) Accelerate elimination of TB, by:
- promoting research to develop new and improved diagnostic tests, drugs and vaccines.
 - promoting adoption of new and improved tools by ensuring access and affordability.

1.3 Within the framework of the above-mentioned objective and more particularly regarding the access to high-quality TB drugs, the Stop TB Partnership will promote use of the Global TB Drug Facility (GDF), which is a project of the Stop TB Partnership. By securing the timely supply of quality TB drugs, the GDF will complement other activities designed to improve coverage and quality of global TB control. In that perspective, and to avoid overlapping and duplication, the GDF will make use to the maximum extent possible of the institutional mechanisms described in the present document.
